Looking for a speaker that everyone will remember?

Jolene DeHeer Ministries

Jolene DeHeer is one of the freshest motivational and inspirational speakers available today! Her dynamic life's stories and practical insights will move you from side-holding laughter to heart-felt tears.

*She will motivate you, inspire you, encourage you, entertain you.
She will touch your life and heart forever.*

Jolene portrays her life experiences in ways that will stay in your mind, make you laugh, inspire, and penetrate your heart. Unforgettable experience. She has a deep love for teens and college students. Adults of all ages identify with her stories, struggles, and God-sent victories.

Those who've heard her speak ask her to return again and again. Those who haven't will find her to be a personable, practical, memorable speaker!

Jolene has been the keynote speaker for :

- conventions
- national and international conferences
- retreats
- regional meetings
- college events
- graduation ceremonies
- youth and church groups
- fund-raising events
- banquets
- mission or spiritual-emphasis week activities

Jolene will prepare one or more presentations especially for your group's theme or topic.

Jolene has co-authored a series of devotional books for teens called 'Devotions To Go,' has served on several regional and national youth-ministry committees, writes for Team Magazine, works annually with national youth 'Serve' projects, and writes her own customized companion devotions for retreats and conferences.
